

$3,000 Tuition Remission for a Member of the Class of 2014.

This could be you!

All medical students in the Class of 2014 are eligible to apply for the New Jersey Chronic Fatigue Syndrome Association Medical Student Scholarship.

Between the first and second years of your medical school education, learn about ME/CFS, an invisible and intriguing illness! It is easy to apply and possibly win!

One million to six million patients are looking for physicians able to treat their Chronic Fatigue Syndrome. You can be one of them!

It is easy to apply and win:

1. Write an essay on an assigned, ME/CFS-related topic
2. Submit an application and essay
3. Winner will receive a $3,000 tuition remission for the second year of medical school

For details, see www.njcfs.org. Click on “Scholarships” & scroll to “Medical Student Scholarship” links. or contact

Kenneth J. Friedman, Ph.D.
Retired Associate Professor of Pharmacology and Physiology
New Jersey Medical School
973-379-1048
kenneth.j.friedman@gmail.com

New Jersey Chronic Fatigue Syndrome Association, Inc